

Animal Idiom Match Game

Cut each card along the dotted line. Mix the cards and lay them face down. Turn the cards over two at a time to match the idiom with its meaning. When a match is made, remove the cards. Continue until all the cards are gone. Game can be timed or played in pairs. If in pairs, a player with a successful match gets another turn. Player that makes the most successful matches wins!

clam up

lion's share

ants in your pants

hold your horses

smell a rat

stool pigeon

when pigs fly

cry crocodile
tears

let the cat
out of the bag

let sleeping
dogs lie

Animal Idiom Match Game

be silent

larger portion

excited;
nervous

slowdown;
wait

suspect
something wrong

tattletale

unlikely to happen

pretend to be upset

carelessly
tell a secret

don't make trouble